2. The account (Statement A) does not show any credits on account of articles sold when no longer required.

J.

3. There are great losses of articles (Statement B) which can hardly be attributed to accident or petty pilfering, - as for example the loss at Karapur Camp of 6 wooden cots, 52 mattresses, 28 camp tables, 38 chairs, 4 tubs &c.

4. Payments to the extent of Rs.55,375 have already been made; bills amounting to Rs.6,265 are pending payment, and it is stated that other bills are "still to come". It is rather inconvenient that the account should be sent piecemeal in this way, but it is to be hoped that the audit Department would effectually tackle with them all.

MEMORANDUM.

I have already submitted my report on the services rendered by the Officers specially appointed to help me in the varios details connected with the visit of Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Minto, to this State.

It only remains for me to report on the arrangements made and the expenditure incurred for the entertainment of Their Excellencies Staff and His Highness' guests at the various Camps.

I received instructions to arrange for four Camps viz at

Gersoppa
Mysore
Kharapur
Kunigal

But owing to His Excellency having decided on leaving some of his Staff at Shimoga during his visit to the Falls special arrangements had to be made for their entertainment and accomodation at the Traveller's Bungalow. This part of the duty was entrusted to the Deputy Commissioner Mr Narayana Rao who took much trouble in personally attending to the arrangements made for their food and accomodation.

On arrival at Shimoga Their Excellencies were met by

The Resident in Mysore
The Inspector General of Police (Mr)
Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga
Collector of Dharawar &c &c ?

and driven to the Falls in motor cars kindly placed at their disposal by His Highness the Maharaja. Afternoon tea was provided for Their Excellencies at Sagar, where a few tents had been pitched for the purpose and the Travellers Bungalow arranged as a Cloak room for the Ladies.

The Bungalow at the Falls was white and Colour washed, suitably furnished and arranged as a residence for Their Excellencies, while the Staff were accomodated in tents pitched in a Semi-Circle to the north of the Bungalow. The Resident, the Collector of Dharwar and the other European Officers of the State were also provided provided with tents in the same place. The Deputy Commissioner the Inspector General of Police, the Military Secretary to His Highness and other Mysore Officers had their own Camp arranged in another locality.

Their Excellencies expressed themselves well pleased with their visit to the Falls and thanked all concerned for the part they had taken in providing for their comfort.

Visit to Mysore

Government House having undergone renovation and having been furnished throughout with costly furniture obtained from Messrs Lazarus & Co of Calcutta on the occasion of the Royal visit, there was no need for any further outlay in this direction.

The only improvements found necessary were:-

1. The upholstering of the Furniture in the large ante-room the tapestry of which had faded considerably.
2. Cuddapah slabbing of the floor opposite the kitchen.
3. Opening of large V. Shaped drains to carry off the washings of the kitchen meat safes &c
4. Re-roofing of the washing up place attached to the pantry.
5. Relining of camp and other furniture
6. Laying out of the garden and grounds

(1) and (5) were carried out Departmentally

(2), (3) and (4) were entrusted to the P.W. Department who did the work satisfactorily

(6) was attended to by Mr Krumbeigal and the improvements carried out under his orders were much appreciated.

Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Minto were accomodated in the rooms used by Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

Lady Eileen Elliot was given the east middle Turret room which was suitably furnished for the occasion

The Camp was arranged in a parallelogram of which the north west side was open.

Their Excellencies Tents occupied the South East Face.

H.H. the Maharaja, Dewan and suite the South West Face.

The Misses Lawley and H.E. Staff the North East Face behind these were the lines occupied by Mysore European Officers and behind these again the line occupied by Telegraph Post Office&c Camp Mess and Motor Car Chauffeurs &c

The tents provided for the accomodation of Their Excellencies were

1. Drawing room tent
1. Dining tent
4. Bedroom tents
4. Bathroom tents

The first six were double pole tents and the last four hill tents.

Owing to want of sufficient time no attempt was made at decoration. Otherwise the above tents were neatly furnished China matting being used for the floor. Their Excellencies were heard to say that the accomodation provided for them was perfect in every detail.

The sitting and sleeping tents allotted to the Misses Lawley were Double Poles. They were also suitably furnished for the occasion.

The Staff and other Official and non-Official guests were accomodated in single pole Swiss cottages, and hill tents.

Electric lights were installed in all tents except those occupied by the Motor Chauffeurs and other Non-official guests.

Two kitchens were provided at this Camp one due east of Their Excellencies tents with a meat safe enclosed with mosquito net to keep out the flies and the 2nd kitchen was placed lower down the hill. The former was used by Messrs D'Angelis & Son who catered for Their Excellencies Staff and other Official guests while the latter was used by Rowapper and the French Cook Richards for cooking the food for the Chauffeurs and other non-official guests.

Recorded with the following remarks.

(1) The accounts furnished by the Military Secy. do not show any credits on account of articles sold when no longer required. Information on this point should be furnished ~~as early as possible~~ at an early date.

(2). It is seen from the talks of the two statements furnished that there are great losses of articles which can hardly be attributed to accident or petty pilfering - as for example, the loss at the Kharagpur Camp of 6 wooden cots, 52 mattresses, 28 camp tables, 38 chairs, 4 tubs &c. The Military Secy is requested to satisfactorily explain the losses before the question of writing the articles off the accounts can be considered.

The value of the articles lost may, however, be written off by the Military Secy himself. Cases of missing articles cannot be traced.
